

Nigel Mansell OBE

Full Name: Nigel Ernest James Mansell

Date of Birth: 8th August 1953

Marital Status: Married with three children

Motor Racing Competition History:

1968/75 Carting (8 championships)
1976/77 Formula Ford (1976 FF Champion)
1978/80 British F3 championship
1980 F1 Debut in Austrian with Lotus
1985 First Grand Prix victory (Williams Honda)
1986 Runner-up in Drivers Championship
1987 Runner-up in Drivers Championship
1991 Runner-up in Drivers Championship
1992 Formula 1 World Champion (Williams-Renault)
1993 Indy Car World Series Champion (Lola Ford)
1980/95 31 Formula 1 Grand Prix Victories
 32 Formula 1 Pole Positions
 30 Formula 1 Fastest Laps
1993/94 5 Indy Car World Series Victories
1998 Competed in three rounds of the British Touring Car
 Championship with Ford Motor Company

Awards:

1986 BBC Sports Personality of The Year
1990 The Order of British Empire, OBE
1992 BBC Sports Personality of The Year
1993 Doctor of Engineering, Birmingham University, UK
1997 Honorary Fellowship, Center for Management of Industrial Reliability, Cost and Effectiveness, (MIRCE) Exeter University, UK
2000 Grand Fellowship, Mirce Akademy of System Operational Science, UK

Business Skill

1995 Purchased Woodbury Park Hotel Golf & Country Club, Devon, UK
1999 Developed a 55 Bedroom Luxury Hotel Complex at Woodbury Park
2001 Appointed as Editor-in-Chief of Formula One Magazine

Community Skills

1989 Special Constable in the Isle of Man and in Devon (13 years service)
2000 President of the UK Youth Charity

Technical Skill

Qualified pilot in aeroplanes and helicopters

Hobbies:

Golf (plays to a 3 handicap), tennis, squash

On the 6th December 2000 he was awarded the first Grand Fellowship of the Mirce Akademy, the highest award that it can bestow upon an individual in recognition of their unique achievement and contribution to System Operational Science at a global level of significance.